

Accepted Measures of Currency of Practice

Effective July 9, 2025

RN Practice Hours in Canada

1 At least 450 practice hours as a registered nurse in the past 2 years

Yes

Or

2 At least 1125 practice hours as a registered nurse in the past 5 years

Yes

No

NCLEX-RN entry-to-practice exam

3 Successfully passed the NCLEX-RN entry-to-practice exam within the past 4 years

Yes

No

Supervised practice in Manitoba

4 At least 225 practice hours as an RN in the past 2 years, complete 100 hours supervised practice in first 60 days after reinstatement

UPDATED
Feb 8, 2024

Yes

No

Supervised practice & required courses in Manitoba

5 At least 750 practice hours as an RN in the past 5 years, complete 100 hours supervised practice in first 60 days after reinstatement, and required refresher courses within 1 year.

NEW
Feb 8, 2024

Yes

Or

6 At least 750 practice hours as an RN in the past 7 years, complete required refresher courses before being eligible for conditional registration, and accrue 100 hours supervised practice in first 60 days after reinstatement

NEW
Feb 8, 2024

Yes

No

Clinical Competence Assessment (CCA)

7 Complete a clinical competence assessment and successfully complete any required coursework in the Nurse Re-Entry Program at RRC Polytech within the last four years

NEW
July 2025

Yes

Or

Full Re-Entry Program

8 Successfully complete all courses in the Nurse Re-Entry Program at RRC Polytech to be eligible for registration within the last two years.

NEW
July 2025

Yes

Requirement
Is Met

* All supervised practice must take place with a designated employer in Manitoba in accordance with the College's Designated Employers for Supervised Practice and Transitional Practice Experience policy.

For more information on how to meet the currency of practice requirement for RN registration, renewal and reinstatement please refer to the College's currency of practice policy.